Pastor's Corner

- I cry out, God, call out: 'You're my last chance, my only hope for life!' ~ Psalm 142:5 (MSG)
- In one year the average American today probably meets as many people as the average person did in a lifetime 100 years ago. And yet we are far lonelier.
- There's a big difference between being lonely and being alone, and the presence of other people doesn't necessarily help at all.
- We must remember that no matter what predicament we find ourselves in, God is always with us to strengthen us.
- This is precisely where David found himself as he wrote Psalm 142—alone but not alone.
- "My God and I are good company." ~ Richard Sibbes
